Dear All,

Final draft is ready for review

Attached is the PDF file of the final draft of the research protocol for Covance CRU Study No.12226-8450 (Pilot study) for your review. This document includes Appendixes A to F.

Additional information

- There are some "holes" yet to be provided from analytical experts (i.e., volume of the aliquot of urine for NNAL and NNAL-glucuronide testing, ACN in exhalate sampling/processing, and the if the urine collections for the 11-dehydrothromboxane and 8-epi-prostaglandin F2 alpha will be from the 24-hour collection or if they need to be morning collections).
- Appendixes E (Informed Consent), F (Questionnaire), and G (Diaries) are currently being reviewed or tested. Therefore, please do not review these sections.

Actions requested

To meet the deadline, please submit in writing any thoughts you have about the research protocol by Tuesday, March 20th at 5:00 P.M. US Eastern Time.

Thank you,
Best regards,
Jan

(P.S. Frau Viol, please distribute this also to P. Kuhl. Thank you)
